

Arizona Press Club 2008 Awards Competition for the Best Journalism in Arizona

Best of Writing and Reporting (Magazines)

ELIGIBILITY

The contest is open to anyone who regularly works in the production of news for any Arizona newspaper, periodical or news service. Trade publications, student media and house organs do not qualify. Online-only entries must be published on either independent Web sites, or sites affiliated with media organizations, that are aimed at general public consumption. Such sites must be primarily devoted to producing news stories and commentaries that follow generally accepted journalistic standards and principles.

Entries must have been originally published in 2008. All entries must be produced for the editorial department of an Arizona publication, news Web site or wire service. Work produced for advertising, marketing or other departments is not eligible.

A majority of the stories in a series must have been published in the contest year.

Stories that comprise a project can be reported and written by a single news outlet or by more than one Arizona media outlet — i.e., two newspapers within a chain — working together. Stories partially or fully reported or written by publications or Internet sites not based in Arizona are not eligible.

ENTRY FEES

- Daily publications under 20,000 circulation and non-daily newspapers of any size: $10/person contest fee plus $5 for each entry.
- Daily publications with circulation of 20,001 and over, on-line publications of any size and magazines of any size: $20/person contest fee plus $10 for each entry. (The contest fee is lower than last year for this category).

NOTE: If a smaller publication is distributed inside a large circulation publication, use the circulation of the larger publication in order to determine which category to enter.

IMPORTANT NOTE REGARDING MULTIPLE BYLINES

Entries with at least five contributors may be submitted as a staff entry at an entry fee of $50. No individuals may be named on the entry form and winning certificates will list only “staff,” not individual names. If you want multiple individuals listed on certificates and in the contest winners’ brochure, each person listed on the entry form must pay a separate category entry fee ($5 per person for small- and mid-sized publications and $10 per person for large publications) as well as a one-time contest entry fee ($10 per person for small- and mid-sized publications and $20 per person for large publications. The contest fee needs to be paid only once, while the category entry fee needs to be paid for each category entered).

Other entry fees

- Community Journalist of the Year: $10.
- Virg Hill, Photojournalist and Designer of the Year awards: $25.

Note: Entrants in these categories must also pay a contest fee of $10 for Community -Journalist of the Year and $20 for Virg Hill, Photojournalist and Designer of the Year (That fee allows entry in as many categories as the entrant wishes).

Unpaid or improperly submitted entries will be disqualified and entry fees will not be refunded.

DEADLINE

Entries must be postmarked by Jan. 31, 2009, unless entrants make special arrangements with contest chair Le Templar, ltemplar@evtrib.com or (480) 898-6474 in advance. Entries will not be opened until the Thursday before the Feb. 7, 2009, pack-up day and only by the contest chair.

Mail entries to:

Arizona Press Club, P.O. Box 16427, Phoenix AZ 85011-6427

JUDGING

Entries will be judged by out-of-state journalists selected by the board of directors. Judges' decisions are final, unless winning entries do not conform to rules.

AWARDS CEREMONY

Winners will be announced at the annual awards banquet, May 9, 2009, at the Heard Museum in downtown Phoenix.

GENERAL RULES

Ethics and disqualification

The Arizona Press Club promotes ethical journalism and recognizes that contest rules cannot envision every potential breach of professional standards. The club reserves the right to disqualify any entry or withdraw any award, based on ethical violations or violations of the rules as noted in the rules, as deemed by the board. Entries that do not conform to the rules will be disqualified. If an entry is disqualified, the prize will be awarded to the next place winner. Disqualified entrants will forfeit their entry fees.

Circulation categories

PLEASE NOTE CHANGE in print publication categories from previous years.

Non-Metro ("B"): Daily newspapers with circulation of 20,000 or less and nondaily newspapers (less than six days a week) of any size.

Metro/Any publication ("C"): Any publication that meets the overall qualifications for the Arizona Press Club contest may enter these categories. Includes wire services and on-line publications. Metro newspapers and other publications that entered the "C" categories in previous years are encouraged to enter this category even if they've seen a recent decrease in circulation.

Note: If an entry has material that appeared in two or more publications under the same ownership, or a smaller publication is distributed inside a larger one, the combined circulation of those publications must be used to determine the proper category.

Grievance policy

For problems, concerns and complaints about the contest, the contest chairperson shall notify the Grievance Committee (president and executive officers). The committee will rule on the matter or forward it to the full Press Club board for final approval.

Disclaimer

The Arizona Press Club is not responsible for lost, mislaid or damaged entries but will take reasonable care processing the entries.

AWARDS

If there is a tie for first place, no second-place award is given. If there is a tie for second, no third-place award is given.

- First place receives an award and a certificate.
- Second place, third place and honorable mention receive a certificate.
- Cash awards of $100 are given only to the top winner in the following categories: Arizona Community Journalist of the Year, Arizona Designer of the Year, Arizona Photojournalist of the Year, Virg Hill Arizona Journalist of the Year.

ENTRY PROCEDURES

- Entries must be submitted exactly as they were published.
- Nominating letters will be allowed in the following categories only: Breaking news reporting, Don Bolles Award, Virg Hill Award, Photojournalist of the Year, Designer of the Year and Community Journalist of the Year.
- Breaking news categories may include a letter explaining the circumstances and time pressure under which the story was reported and written.
- All entries must include a signed entry form. The form is the last two pages of this document and may be copied. If more than one person contributed to an entry, only one of the entrants or a representative has to sign. List headlines completely to help identify entries.
- Any journalist may enter as many times and in as many categories as desired. However, no story may be submitted more than once, except that stories entered in other categories may also be used to enter the Virg Hill Award, Community Journalist of the Year, Photojournalist of the Year, Designer of the Year and other exceptions only as noted.
- Entries must be neatly packaged in an 8 1/2 x 11-inch file folder with a completed entry form stapled to the outside. Larger folders are allowed for Virg Hill entries. Do not staple the folder shut. Please do not use more than two staples to affix the entry form to the folder.
- Spanish-language publications can enter any category provided that — except in Spanish-language writing categories — all stories, headlines and captions are translated into English.
- Entries will not be returned.

ENTRY PREPARATION

Categories B, M and C — writing and reporting

Entries may include clips, tear sheets or legible copies. Complete printouts from electronic databases that maintain verbatim copies may be submitted, provided they include proof of publication. Entries may include headlines, graphics illustrations and photographs.
